Your Itinerary

Carefully designed day-by-day experiences and personalized journeys.

Day 1

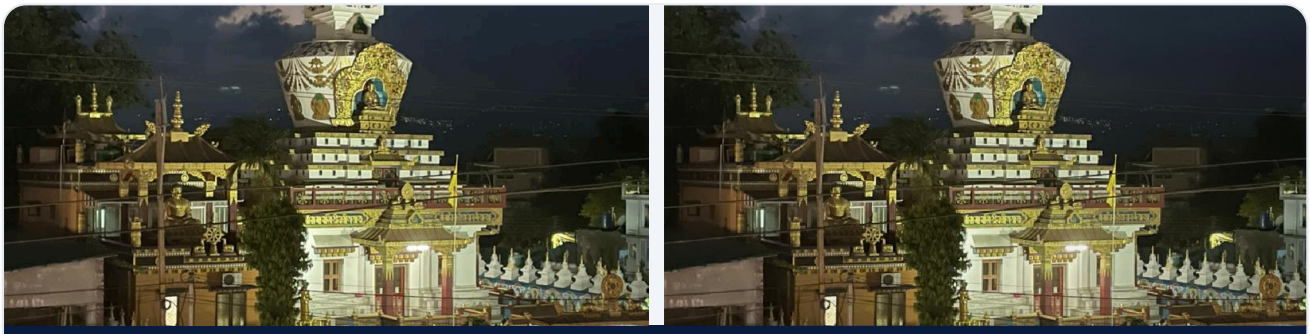

Phuentsholing

Arrival in Bagdogra and Transfer to Phuentsholing

Arrive at Bagdogra Airport and meet the transfer vehicle for the drive to Phuentsholing, approximately 180 km and five to six hours. Complete the immigration process on arrival. Phuentsholing is a lively commercial gateway at the foot of the Himalayan foothills, where Indian and Bhutanese cultures meet. Check in at the hotel and stay overnight in Phuentsholing.

Day 3

Thimphu

Thimphu Museums, Monasteries and Cultural Sites

After breakfast, explore Thimphu Valley, including the National Library, the Institute for Zorig Chusum painting school, the Textile Museum and Simply Bhutan living museum. After lunch, drive to Pangri Zampa, an old monastery with a monastic school where students study Buddhist philosophy and astrology. Later visit Zilukha Nunnery, also known as Druthob Goemba, and learn about the nuns' daily life and studies. Overnight in Thimphu.

Stay: Ariya (4-star standard), Turma Linca (4-star premium), or Le Méridien Thimphu (5-star)

Breakfast | Dinner

Day 4

Punakha

Thimphu to Punakha via Dochula Pass

After breakfast, drive from Thimphu to Punakha across Dochula Pass, noted for its prayer flags and views of the eastern Himalayas in clear weather. Continue to Chimi Lhakhang, the fertility temple, on a walk through paddy fields and villages; the round trip is described as about one and a half hours. Check in and visit Punakha Dzong at the meeting of two rivers, then explore the riverside village. Overnight in Punakha.

Stay: Spirit Village Lodge | Breakfast | Dinner

Day 5

Paro

Punakha to Paro via Simtokha Dzong

After breakfast, travel by scenic highway from Punakha to Paro, approximately 120 km and four and a half hours. En route, visit Simtokha Dzong, described as the country's oldest fortress and now home to a school for Buddhist studies. On arrival in Paro, check in and, after lunch, visit Ta Dzong, now the National Museum, followed by a walk down to Rinpung Dzong to see its historic courtyard and wall paintings. Overnight in Paro.

Stay: Thim Dorji (4-star standard), Kaachi Grand (4-star premium), or Le Méridien Paro, Riverfront (5-star)

Breakfast Dinner

Day 6

Paro

Tiger's Nest Monastery or Haa Valley Excursion

After breakfast, the main itinerary is an approximately five-hour walk to Taktsang Monastery, or Tiger's Nest, perched on a cliff above Paro Valley and regarded as a sacred Bhutanese site. The supplier also offers an alternative full-day excursion to Haa Valley via Chele-la Pass, visiting Haa Dzong, Lhakhang Karpo, Lhakhang Nagpo and Wangchulo Dzong, then returning to Paro. The Haa excursion is quoted as an additional INR 9,800. Overnight in Paro.

Stay: Thim Dorji (4-star standard), Kaachi Grand (4-star premium), or Le Méridien Paro, Riverfront (5-star)

Day 7

Phuentsholing

Paro to Phuentsholing

After breakfast, check out and travel by scenic road from Paro to Phuentsholing, approximately 170 km and six to seven hours. On arrival, check in at the hotel. The town is a busy commercial centre on the northern edge of the Indian plains, set at the base of the Himalayan foothills and known for its blend of Indian and Bhutanese cultures. Stay overnight in Phuentsholing.

Stay: Tashi Namgyel or Druk 3* Premium | Breakfast | Dinner

Day 8

Phuentsholing to Bagdogra Departure

Have breakfast at the hotel and complete immigration clearance before departure. Transfer by road from Phuentsholing to Bagdogra Airport, approximately 180 km and five to six hours, for your onward flight. The itinerary specifies an airport drop but does not include flight details. This concludes the Bhutan tour.
